

Across

- The answer lies before answer (3)
- Van Winkle did rest in peace (3)
- Shell out a hundred on small church (5)
- I left the island as Edwina said it was not safe (3)
- Canisp, Alligin hold the slang mate (3)
- The heavenly dancers of old Aberdeen – aurora is on the removed to pertain to the north (6)
- Unhappy in the thought of glissading (3)
- A roman catholic part of the circumference of a circle (3)
- Flowering willow, fireweed or epilobium angustifolium (7)
- It sounds as if you will regret living near Helensburgh (3)
- Due south at mid-day (3)
- It could be a sand, a house or an eddie (6)
- It may sound funny, but actually you should spell it this way (3)
- An even smaller small Gaelic (3)
- Silver, steel, gold and nickel contain, what is said, the best view of the Cuillins (5)
- This story is filled with granite (3)
- Mother has to leave Driesh's neighbour for a seaside town (3)

Down

- He extracts teeth and subscriptions (9)
- Used in diagnosis of heart disorder, but nothing to do with Cupid (3)
- Apocryphally it's said to be deserted on a flag day (5,6)
- Avalanche leg hire, bids for a crossing west (5,6)
- Tossed parsley repeats (7)
- The steep frowning glories of dark . . . . (9)
- He is at the top of Drumochter at the end of summer playing with the pipers (7)
- Old Norse blue (3)