

THE CAIRNGORM CLUB LIBRARY

Catalogue of books arranged by author as at May 1996.

The Cairngorm Club library is held in the Special Collections Department of Aberdeen University Library which is adjacent to Elphinstone Hall in Old Aberdeen. It is generally open from 9.30am until 4.30pm on weekdays. Books are held in two areas. Those books published after 1960 and complete runs of CCJ and the SMCJ are to be found on 'open shelving' and can be borrowed immediately. Books published before 1930 and other journals and pamphlets are held in a restricted area but can also be viewed and borrowed if prior warning is given to the Special Collections Department (☎: 272929). Those books of intermediate date could be held in either area though with greater likelihood of their being in the area holding books nearest to their publication date, and with popular books being held in the 'open area'. Books can only be borrowed by members on production of a current membership card and should be returned within two months either to the Special Collections Department, at Club indoor meets, or to the Club librarian.
